Closing Thought

January 'Follow Me' Verse

And calling the crowd to him with his disciples, he said to them,
"If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it."

Mark 8:34-35 (ESV)

Today we will be starting a new message series that will take us on a journey through the Gospel of Matthew. In conjunction with this message series, we encourage you to follow along with a reading plan that is available on the web at <https://www.bible.com/> or use the Bible App for mobile devices which can be found at <https://www.bible.com/app>. Or go to darbycreek.org and click on the 'Matthew Plan' Box for complete information.

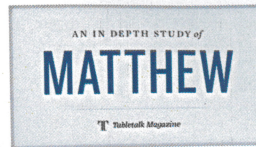

This Bible.com / Bible App reading plan not only has the scripture readings to take you through Matthew, but also provides some devotional commentary and a question for personal application each day. The first two days' readings are introductory, but after that, there is personal application each day. Whether you use the Bible reading plan through your computer's browser or use one of the mobile apps, you will need to create a free account to start the reading plan. Once you have created an account, click on the "Plans" icon and search for the plan named "An In Depth Study of Matthew" in the search box provided.

If you choose not to use the Bible App / Bible.com reading plan devotional, just follow the schedule below.

Strength and Wisdom for the Journey

The writer of Hebrews reminds of the race we all run as believers:

Hebrews 12:1-2 Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

The Christian life is marathon not a sprint. It takes God's grace, His power, and the God-given wisdom imparted by those who have run this race of following Jesus longer than we have. This year we will have a guest speaker who will be sharing with us how to develop and maintain a deep and abiding walk with Christ that will sustain us through the highs and lows of life so we can finish the race in a way that brings God glory.
